

BRILLIANT RECEPTION IS GIVEN BY MRS. M. P. SCHUSTER AND DAUGHTER

MRS. M. P. Schuster and daughter, Mrs. C. A. Reinmund, entertained on Friday afternoon from 2 until 5 o'clock, with an attractive and enjoyable reception at the Country club. The dining room of the club was decorated in ropes of English ivy which were festooned about the windows. Violets and beautiful La France roses decorated the table. The ivy was also effectively used in the living room of the club while a center table also held the flowers. Pink candles burned in silver candlesticks. Ropes of smilax were draped from the corner of the room to the center. An orchestra furnished music for the occasion and played Mexican airs during the afternoon.

Mrs. Schuster wore a handsome gown of black jet with touches of burnt orange trimming. A diamond feather was worn as a head ornament and her jewelry was rubies and diamonds. Mrs. Reinmund's beautiful gown was of deep pink to a deeper shade of the color. The gown was trimmed in touches of turquoise and Spanish lace. She wore a chaste half ornament with a pink feather. Her jewelry was pearls. Punch was served during the afternoon from two tables, which were attractive in their decorations of amilax. Presiding at the punch bowls were: Misses Anna Lee Gaines, Helen Roberts, Walker, McClellan, Lucy Werns, Martha Thurmond and Mrs. Josephine Nations Morfit. Assisting in the dining room were: Misses Frances Foster, Estelle Goodman, Isabel Seamon, Elise Kohlberg, Stella Berrien, Virginia Roan. The cards were read at the door by Margaret Schuster and Vonia Eray, who were daintily fingered dresses. The receiving line was arranged in the groups. Mrs. C. E. Kelly received the guests with Mrs. Schuster and Mrs. Reinmund. In the second group were: Mesdames J. H. Nations, L. S. Stewart, H. C. Myles, W. H. Seamon, Frank Seamon, M. O. Wright, Helen Roberts, O. C. Ellison, J. W. Eubank. Mrs. J. P. Averill was the first to greet the guests in the third group, and those assisting were: Mesdames W. H. Burgess, C. L. Overstreet, William Race, W. Cooley, W. L. Tooley, W. L. Gaines, Zach White, A. W. Foster, Charles Fox. In the fourth group were: Mesdames Francis Moore, James Vance, Roy Davis, W. E. Ramsey, Charles Loomis, A. R. Klein, D. Baker Smith and Miss Helen Irvin. The guests were introduced by Mesdames O. H. Baum, W. R. Brown and W. W. Turney. Refreshments of a salad course were served and about 200 guests enjoyed the afternoon and delightful hospitality.

Mrs. J. L. Edwards, Mrs. J. R. Watson and Mrs. L. H. Tucker will be at home to their friends each Monday during December, at 609 North El Paso street.

Cards

Mrs. D. B. Eads entertained on Friday afternoon, at her new home, 2226 Montana street, honoring Mrs. J. S. Mackin. Bridge was played and the prize, a brass flower basket, was won by Mrs. J. M. Burroughs. A three course luncheon was served. The little son of Mrs. Eads, dressed as "Cupid," brought the gifts in, led by Mary Brown. Those present were: Mesdames H. E. McDowell, C. K. Wolf, R. W. Fort, O. H. Rollman, J. Robb, E. S. Mackin, Chas. Nasit, J. R. Hunter, George Webster, J. M. Burroughs, F. H. Brown, E. H. Burk, D. B. Eads. Mrs. Eads was assisted by Mrs. O. H. Rollman and Mrs. R. W. Fort.

A Drug Store That Is Headquarters For Christmas Gifts.
As a rule, people do not think of a drug store in connection with Christmas gifts. This drug store is the exception. In addition to many items in our regular stock which are appropriate for gifts, we secured especially for the holidays a variety of articles which past seasons have taught us are most likely to be desired for gift purposes. While it is impossible to list all the items we offer Christmas shoppers, we do mention a few, as follows:
For men: Safety razors, shaving mirrors, shaving pads, complete shaving sets, the racks, military brush sets, clothes brushes, clear and cigarette cases, collar bags, fountain pens, Anasco cameras.
For women: Icy-Hot vacuum bottles, toilet sets in various finishes, French ivory novelties, leather handbags, coin purses, sewing sets, wash cloth pockets, Anasco cameras, fountain pens, stationery, perfumes and toilet waters.
The above are merely suggestions, and do not by any means tell you the whole story of our Christmas stock. A visit to this store will give you the answer to most of your Christmas gift problems.
